At The Days of Gifts, we provide your friends and loved ones with a wonderful, multi-day gift-opening experience. Why celebrate for just one day? Turn any occasion into a multi-day celebration.

Have you found yourself struggling to find the perfect gift for someone—or even just a kinda perfect gift? Or maybe you just want to give something totally different? Or perhaps you're apart from a friend or loved one and just want to say, "I'm thinking of you!"

We're here to help. At The Days of Gifts, we take the anguish out of gift-giving by taking care of it for you. Here's how it works:

- You tell us about your recipient through a simple, checkbox questionnaire. Personality traits, interests, lifestyle, favorite color—there's even room for you to tell us more. It takes about 5 minutes.
- Based on the information you provide, we compile a set of unique and special gifts from our collection that are tailored just for your recipient.
- We beautifully wrap and ribbon every present, labeling each gift for the day it should be opened (Day 1, Day 2, Day 3, etc.)
- All of gifts arrive in one box, marked "Don't Open Until ..." to build excitement and anticipation.
- On the special day of your choice, your recipient opens the box and begins opening one gift every day for up to 12 days.

The Days of Gifts is not your typical present. You're giving a unique, fun, and exciting experience that your recipient will always remember and treasure. Because every day is a gift!
